

Delivery Information

We generally send our guards via Australia Post – Australia wide & Overseas and the postage is payable by the customer at their end. We do also provide an Express postage & handling service for a fee. (Prices for the two Australia Post services mentioned can be estimated if requested). Or customers may wish to nominate their own form of transport at their cost. If you are local you are most welcome to collect your guard from our offices.

Guards must be paid for prior to despatch. Payment can be made to our office by cheque or directly to our bank account. Our bank details appear on all Tax Invoices.

Our prop guards can be viewed on our website www.progeng.com.au
